

The rain and snow of last week raised havoc with the telephone lines, wires broke off, poles broke in two as though they were a piece of 2x4, and with storm and bad weather it will take some time to put them in operation. Our local manager, Brown has managed to keep the service fairly good.

I W. Wilsey came to Binford