

I. I. Braaten, who met with a serious accident last week, and taken to Valley City for treatment, will return home tomorrow. He is getting along fine, is able to sit up, and will be walking with the injured foot before long.