

Iver Braaten and wife returned last Friday from Valley City, where Mr. Braaten received medical attention in the Plateau hospital for the injury to his foot. He is able to attend to his duties at Hammer-Rood's as bookkeeper, but needs the aid of crutches to get around. His foot is healing fast and he expects in a week or ten days more will be able to walk on it.