

Robert Burns, a transient, working with the Michaelis threshing machine, went on the warpath Sunday. He armed himself with a razor and went for Herman Michaelis who in self defense had to shoot him. Burns was shot in the shoulder, but the wound is not serious. He was taken to Cooperstown where he was arrested and is now confined in the jail.