

F. D. Cannon painted a nice sign for the Hub Restaurant, the first of the week. A. D. Shaw, the proprietor, has tried hard to get a sign painted, but he has thus far been unable to get anyone at it on account of everybody having a good deal of work on hand, but now he has a dandy, and when you come to town you can see it.