

Mrs. William Carlton returned last Saturday from Valley City, where she has been treated for appendicitis. She was improving nicely after the operation until a serious turn in her case ensued, which necessitated further treatment and she spent several weeks at the institution. However, we are pleased to state that she is very much improved now and it is believed she will fully recover.