

Clearfield.

Elmer Smith was kicked by a horse last week and his reports were that he had three ribs broken, shoulder blade cracked and his back bone badly twisted, but after he was examined he was found not to be so severely hurt as he thought.

Master Irvin Wilson was in the city of Cooperstown last Saturday and did not return until a late hour. It was thought that he was lost, strayed or stolen.

Tom Jones is thinking of becoming a lecturer.

G. Higgins was seen coming from the south last week at an early hour.

People are fearing they are having too much rain now, and will not have enough in the next few months to come.

Cors. M. and G.