

James C. Coe who has been working with contractor Brodshaug this summer, departed for his home in Boscobell, Wis. James says, he would have stayed a little longer, but he wanted to get a chance to vote for Taft. James makes his annual visit here every summer and we shall look for him again next spring.