

G. J. Collet, formerly of Jessie, writes to have the Times sent to him at Pingree now instead of Buchanan as during the past few months. He is running a barber shop there and reports business as being good.