

Mrs. H. J. Maurer returned Monday from Valley City, and reported that Little Christina Davidson was improving slightly when she left, and that there was some hope of her recovery. For a few days prior to this the little sufferer was not expected to survive her illness, and this news of later improvement is received with great joy by her many friends. It is now hoped that she will continue to improve until she is fully recovered.