

Mesdames H. J. Maurer and Otto Pritz went to Cooperstown Sunday to call upon their niece and cousin, Christina Davidson, who is very sick with appendicitis. They report that the little girl is suffering considerably, and she was taken to the hospital on Monday. It is sincerely hoped by all who know the patient that she will survive the operation and be restored to perfect health.