

place in the near future to reside upon their claim in Bowman county. This is not received with the greatest of pleasure by their friends, for they will be missed a great deal, but they will certainly carry with them the very best wishes of everybody. George has resigned his position with the Monarch elevator company and a new man has arrived there to take the position.