

Arvid Erickson with a force of men arrived and started laying the foundation for the school house.