

While driving out to attend the dedication services at the German Lutheran church south of town last Sunday Mrs. August Evers, Miss Zetta Wheeler and Ben Ford met with an accident which necessitated their walking back to town. The buggy got stuck in the mud and in attempting to get out of the mire the evener broke—landing Ben in the midst of the puddle.

Cards are out announcing the