

Martin Fredrickson and Nels Hagen, two good Pekin hustlers, were here last Friday. Mr. Fredrickson went to Cooperstown on the passenger, and while there purchased a Rambler touring car. He drove the car within two miles of Benford on the return trip when the blooming thing stopped, and he was forced to come here for assistance. A few of our master mechanics went out and located the trouble and soon had it working in fine shape.