

Martin Freese tendered his resignation as clerk in the Hammer-Rood hardware store and left last Saturday for Brooten, Minnesota, where he will visit with relatives. He is undecided as to what he will do but he may return to this state again.