
"Saxon Demon" Wins.

Roy Gratias, formerly of this place, and known to the sporting fraternity as the "Saxon Demon" won two straight falls from Luke Supples of Devils Lake in an athletic exhibition at Tower City last week. The first fall was won in 26 minutes and the second found the loser in a weaker condition and was taken in 14 minutes. Gratias will meet Carl Mattson of Minneapolis at Leal this evening.
