

GRATIAS VICTOR.

In a warmly contested match last night, Roy H. Grati as, local heavy-weight wrestling champion, won the championship of the northwest against Jim McAuley of St. Paul, former champion, catch-as-catch-can, in two falls out of three before a big crowd of sports at Pirie's hall.

There were several preliminary boxing bouts that were interesting, but no decisions were given.

The wrestling began about 10:50 p. m. McAuley won the first fall with a half nelson and crotch hold in 13 1-2 minutes. Grati as took the second fall in 15 1-2 minutes and the last in 32 minutes and 5 seconds, after a hard tussle.

The match appeared to be on the square and there was much enthusiasm over the victory of the local man.—Morning Call, April 13.
