

Oliver, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Gunderson swallowed a pin last Saturday afternoon, but he was very fortunate in that he swallowed it with the head first which aided very materially in carrying it on without lodging. He is now past danger and it is considered a lucky escape from serious trouble.

Oswald Melgard came up