

Rasmus Ueland arrived on Tuesday's train from Norway where he has spent the last 3 years visiting. He reports C. J. Hellend as having a good time and will stay until next spring before he returns here. Carl has a good man looking after his interests and so he feels that he can stay away until he gets home sick good and plenty.