

Jack Herlick met with a very painful and quite serious accident yesterday. He was in the act of starting a gasoline engine in Greenland, Pritz & Co.'s warehouse, and he got his foot caught in the cylinder, crushing the toes.