

We overheard one of the traveling men who was in the runaway Tuesday night, telling that they walked five miles when they struck a farmer out about two miles who brought them to Binford. When asked where they were dumped, he stated about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles east of Mose which is only five short miles from Binford.