

A couple of traveling men driving down from McHenry had a run away this side of Mose Tuesday evening. To make a long story short, the Drummers picked up their grips, secured a tie-pass and started for Binford. As luck would have it they met a good Samaritan, B. A. Hermanson, who came to their rescue by taking a team at A. H. Overbys and driving them to town. We were unable to learn their names.