

ACCUSE MAN OF TRYING TO DIE

St. Paul Police Declare North Dakotan Twice Attempted to Commit Suicide.

The following dispatch from St. Paul appeared in the Fargo Forum, but inquiries at Jessie fail to reveal his identity:

"Thomas Holmes, a farmer, from Jessie, N. D., is locked up in the county jail, charged with attempting to commit suicide. He is a young man and has been visiting in St. Paul several weeks.

Holmes was arrested at Eighth and Robert street by Policeman Miske Sunday night after he had tried to drink a bottle of carbolic acid. The police say it was the second time Holmes attempted self-destruction by that means.

When taken before Judge Hanft he was extremely nervous from excessive use of absinthe and begged piteously to be allowed to go home, promising never to do it again.
