

E. M. Jackson returned home Monday from his trip looking over the Trimble-Winton yards in the capacity of auditor. This territory includes 12 yards and extends as far as Esmond, on the Oberon branch. His appointment to the auditorship isn't likely to make any change in his place of residence—a fact that is sure appreciated by Binford people.

The Lutheran Guild society that was