

HANDICAP WRESTLING

R. H. Grafias (Saxon Demon) has offered to wrestle five men one at a time in the space of one hour's time for a side bet of $300 and gate receipts. He challenged James Daley of Valley City, Young Bolero of Buffalo, N. D., Nels Halvorson of Binford, Lars Rondestvedt of Thief River Falls, Minn. and N. Beauregard of Tolna, and the challenge has been accepted. The big event will take place at Binford opera house on Friday night, June 21st, at 9 o'clock and all lovers of good fast sport will have an opportunity of witnessing one of the greatest contests ever attempted in the entire Northwest. To accomplish a feat of this kind is unquestionably a great undertaking, and the question seems to be "Can the Saxon Demon throw these five men in that short time?" He has $300 to say that he can and he will certainly make a great effort to do so, which will make the match most interesting and strictly on the square. Tickets are now on sale at Ben E. Nelson's and as a large crowd is expected to attend, those desiring seats should avail themselves of an early opportunity of getting seats. Don't miss it if you like to see good wrestling and fast work. It will be a treat to many in this vicinity who have not had a chance to witness professional wrestlers in their lively bouts upon the mat.
