

Friley Jeffords returned last week from Canada where he had been prospecting for three weeks, waiting for some land to be opened for settlement in southern Alberta. Mr. Jeffords speaks highly of the country, and says he liked it so well that he filed on a homestead, also a preemption and filed on a quarter for his son and one for his brother, getting a section of land in one piece.

... Christmas tree and entertainment