Edwin Erickson is on the sick list this week.

Jim Thingelstad went to Fargo yesterday to transact business.

Mrs. Harry St. John has been on the sick list this week but is now reported as doing nicely.

Dr. Winslow was up from Cooperstown last Saturday looking over some horses for Ole Thorn and others.

Ole L. Anderson returned from Fargo yesterday with his boy who has undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Edwin Thorn has sold his restaurant and pool room to Gus Pella, who expects to take charge as soon as he has had his auction sale.

Erick Erickson was up from Cooperstown last Saturday and he said that he was well pleased with the way business is commencing this spring.

The lumberman has started to remodel the living rooms back of the office and it looks as though a position as housekeeper will be open soon. Well, here is good luck John.

Fred Drittenbass has rented his farm for the coming year to a man from Casselton by the name of Ed Fiebeger. This makes the third person that lives in this vicinity with that name and we hope they will not get mixed up too much.
