

vator.

Theo. Kittelson won the first prize, $5.00, in the bowling contest that was conducted by Ben E. Nelson. He rolled a score of 244. The other prizes went to Oscar Alm, second, with a score of 234, August Evers, third, 228, Martin Nelson, fourth, 223, I. Alfstad, fifth, 223.

Miss H. Wald, who has been