Confirmation and

Communion Services Last Sunday was a day long be remembered by the to be remembered Norwegian Lutheran congregation at Binford, Nine young people, three girls and six boys reviewed their baptesmal over and parttook for the first time in Although communion. the weather was not very propitional a large concourse of people gathered to witness the solemn ceremony, and the church was filled to its utmost with interested listeners, and athough the body seemed to lose interest. The church was nicely decorated for the occasion with. An organ played by Mrs. Albert Alfson added also to the solemnity and life, of the occasion. Extra seats were placed in to accommodate the large number expected, but every seat was taken and several stood during the service. the service. During the short period of rehearsal, conducted by Rey, rehearsal, conducted by Rey, Jenson, the yourg people sat a part of the time, but in order to make the responders more audibly to the questi na asked them by the pastor, they were requested to stand. Consider-ing the short time these young people have been instructed, we can only say that they did credid to themselves. It takes con-siderable composure of mind to stand such a test, even for the brightest, and so we have only congratulations and best wishes to offer our young christians, and we furthermore wish and hope that the instruction received may increase in strength for the good of the church and the honor of the Lord whom they have promised fealty. Two young people from Cooperstown joined the class, this makes the number eleven. We give their names below as follows: Laura Josephine Krogfoss, Laura Tureua Ness

Siger Eli Olson Oscar Alfred Alm Alfred Selmer Alfson Nils Thune John Holfdon Kebsgaard Edna Louisa Heitmann Selmer Hellerk Larson.
