

John Leininger was in town yesterday and in conversation with the TIMES scribe he says he is through threshing and that his wheat averaged about 20 bushels to the acre. In all he says he got about 17,000 bushels of grain, and then adds, "not so bad for nine days work."