

F. G. Lewis returned last Saturday from his visit at his old home in Indiana. Mr. Lewis would have stayed awhile longer if his children had been well, but being away from home it made him uneasy.

Chas. Hopkins of Indiana, a cousin of our townsman, Mr. Lewis arrived in company with Mr. Lewis and will make an extended visit.