

Sentinel: Graham McCulloch writes the Sentinel from Rochester, Minn., where they went some weeks ago, that Mrs. McCulloch came down with an attack of appendicitis on March 23 and has been abed ever since. When she is strong enough she will have an operation. It is expected that they will be at Rochester for at least a month yet.