

lake.

Dr. H. L. McKinstry, of Red Wing, Minn., has been spending the past week on a choice piece of land southwest of town. He is having the land broken up and has started excavating for a new house to be erected soon. That Doc is favorably impressed with this country is evidenced by the many improvements he is making.