

Mrs. Knute Oien has recovered sufficiently from her operation at the hospital at Northwood and expects to be home this week. Grave fears were expressed for her recovery from the fact that she had undergone three operations before.