

PEKIN IS GOING TO CELEBRATE

Will Observe Norway's Independence Day in Royal Manner.

Pekin is going to celebrate Norway's independence day in good, old Norskman style on Tuesday, June 8th.

The affair has become an annual feature in that town and judging by the record-breaking crowds that have attended them in previous years it is likely to be a "fixture." The one held last year was the best in its history, but arrangements are now being made to make the coming one eclipse all former records.

Pekin has a bunch of boosters who will leave nothing undone for the comfort of visitors. Bad weather is the only thing that will mar the pleasure of the day—and that day is so far from the glorious Fourth that no rain is expected.

Peer Stromme, of Madison, Wisconsin, a lecturer of no little prominence, will deliver the address of the day. Mr. Stromme is a noted speaker and is heard considerable in the large cities in other states. He is speaking in St. Paul this week.

The Binford ball team has been engaged to play a game of ball with a team either from Casselton or Hope. Then there will be foot races of all sorts, closing the day of good time with a dance in the evening.

A good sized representation will go up from Binford to help make the "eagle" scream.
