

City last Friday, and on Monday he accompanied his wife home, Mrs. Larson having undergone an operation at the Plateau hospital. She has nearly recovered and it will be but a short time before she will be able to be about again.

Wimbledon News: E. R. Goff, of Cooperstown arrived the first of the week and will open up a photograph gallery tomorrow in the Juan building on the east side of main street. Mr. Goff has located here permanently, is a first-class workman and comes well recommended.

The celebration at Pekin on Tuesday was a howling success in spite of the inclement weather. A large crowd thronged the streets all day long. The Pekin band furnished music throughout the day and let it be said right here that they have reason to feel proud of their musical organization. Many bigger towns cannot boast of a band such as is maintained in Pekin. They have a neat, dark blue uniform and make a fine appearance. The principal attraction of the day was the ball game between Aneta and Binford. The local team won the game by a score of 8 to 4. Gulliver and Ringlee were on the points for Binford and Forsyth and Hoar for Aneta. The day's enjoyment concluded with a dance in the evening.

Pekin has a bunch of good fellows who are always willing to go out of their way to give a visitor a good time. A large delegation went up from here.

Courier: Thomas L. Purinton, a citizen of New York state, arrived at Cooperstown last Saturday and will visit at the home of his brother, Oscar D. Purinton, for a few weeks. Mr. Purinton likes the looks of North Dakota but thinks the country too level—he is used to the hills.

Mrs. E. W. Sperry left on Tuesday for her home at Drake, having been present at the marriage of her brother, Martinus, to Miss Mabel Skoftad last week. Mrs. Sperry is well pleased with her new home at Drake, where Mr. Sperry is engaged in the newspaper business. He is giving the people of Drake a good, newsy paper, and the business concerns should "come across" with something a little more substantial in the advertising line.

A sensational stabbing affray occurred at Pekin last week, when Ole Houge, the lumberman, was made the victim of a brutal assault by Lars Morken, a farmer living north of Pekin. It seems that the trouble grew out of the school election that was held there that day. The result of the election favored the bonding of the district for a
