

home.

Osmund Peterson who is staying at the farm of Nels Halvorson, accidentally cut his hand on Sunday, and Dr. Truscott was called to attend to the injury. Mr. Peterson was repairing the door to the cook car and the knife slipped, burying the point of the blade deep into the flesh. The wound was a severe one but it is believed it will not prove a dangerous one.