

“Dad” Preston left town Monday. He says he don’t know where he’s goin’ but he’s on his way. He’s just like the birds—he goes South for the winter and is usually here when they return in the spring. “Dad” has been around Binford for so many summers past that he has become a landmark, and as Torger’s right hand man at Shaw’s, he can’t be beat.