

The three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rickford suffered a painful experience last Sunday. She was playing with some buttons and pushed one of them into her nostril. They took the child to town and Dr. Truscott removed the button.