

the buying public.

News from Torger Rogne, who has been operated on at a Moorhead hospital for appendicitis, tells us that he underwent the operation successfully and is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Flourish