

she's not built that way.

The ski tournament near Peking last Saturday is said to have been a very successful affair. Quite a number of contestants were entered to compete for the prizes and some good jumping was done. Brinjolf Rogne of this place was there, and, altho he did not enter the contest, yet he did a ski stunt and made the longest jump of the day, his distance being 40 feet, which would have won the prize had he been a contestant. He says there are some good ski artists in that part of the country, and he enjoyed the tournament very much.
