

C. W. Sievert, a member of the Binford ball team last year, arrived here Tuesday from the west and will do the heavy work again this season. Since leaving here last fall he spent the time in Washington, but is not much in love with that county. "Smiles" is glad to get back to God's country again, and his many friends are equally glad that he is.

The automobile used by Krog-