

WINDY STENVIK WAS ARRESTED

Former McHenry Catcher Draws a Free Pass to the Sargent County Jail.

Cogswell Enterprise: Oliver Stenvik, better known as "Windy," is in durance vile—a guest at Hotel de Mason at the county seat. Stenvik will be remembered as a member of the Cogswell ball team in 1907. While playing at Cogswell he met Miss Palma Dahl and a year later they were married. Stenvik, according to his wife, is a poor provider, and she was soon left to care for herself. On a charge of non-support "Windy" was arrested by Sheriff Mason while playing ball with McHenry, and brought back. Bail was placed at $2,500, but up to this time Stenvik has been unable to make the raise. It is reported the plaintiff offered to settle for $1,500 cash or $25 a month alimony, but just where the defendent is expected to raise that amount is not quite clear.
