

Ernest Johnson, who recently disposed of his livery business at Cooperstown has purchased the Mike Weiss' farm south of town and has taken possession. He moved his family on the place this week. Mr. Weiss will leave shortly for Canada. The TIMES expresses the sentiment of Binford people when it says we are all sorry to lose Mr. Weiss and his estimable wife, but all wish for them unbounded success in the land of thistles.