

H. K. Wooten, representing the Bismarck Tribune, was here Monday. He is making this territory, securing the history of this part of the state and with the biographical sketches of the pioneers, it will be entered in a book that is being gotten out by the Tribune company. It is a big undertaking but when completed will be a very interesting publication.