

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson, living northwest of town, died suddenly last week from pneumonia. We have been unable to learn further particulars. One of the other children is said to be quite sick.