

Mrs. Mason Knapp.

Mrs. Mason Knapp passed away last Saturday evening, July 1, 1911, at 7:10, after an illness of seven or eight years during which time she suffered untold agony from sciatica. She had been an invalid for some six years and death was a relief to her.

Mrs. Knapp's maiden name was Mamie J. Remington. She was born in Kinbarbine, Ont., Feb. 21, 1871, and came to Dakota at the age of twelve years. She was married to Mason Knapp Nov. 1, 1893. She is survived by her husband and two small children, four brothers and two sisters. While death has relieved her from a world of trouble and she has passed to a place of peace, her death is peculiarly saddening, for had she been blessed with health the world would have been far richer in its blessings for those near and dear to her. The Sentinel extends its most sincere sympathies to the sorrowing relatives.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the Mabel M. E. church, the Rev. J. G. Dingle officiating, and interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.—Sentinel.
