

Word was received here last Thursday from L. P. Larson, who had gone to the twin cities on business, announcing the death of his father in a hospital at Christiania, Norway. The home of the deceased is at Whitehall, Wisconsin. He was a member of the Larson, Ringlee & Co. stores here and at Aneta, besides being interested in several banks in this and other states. Interment will be made in the cemetery at Whitehall. L. P. Larson expects to go to Whitehall
