

Jessie News Items.

Mrs. N. O. Haugen and children are spending a few days visiting at Aneta, their former home.

At the annual meeting of The Jessie Farmers' Mercantile and Elevator Co., on Saturday, June 28th, the following officers were elected: Pres., John Detwiller; vice president, O. L. Anderson; secretary and treasurer, H. St. John. John Erickson is the manager and the company expect a good business this year.

Arthur T. Olson attended the Johnson-Almklov wedding near Cooperstown on the 26th.

S. A. Pritz, Max Wild and families visited at the O. A. Roningen home on Sunday.

Peder Pederson was down from near Binford on Tuesday.

John Erickson and family were guests at the Gilbertson-Lunde wedding east of Cooperstown on Monday, the 30th.

We understand that there is to be a celebration at Red Willow lake on the Fourth. There's the place to go if you want a good time.

Cashier St. John was a business visitor at the county seat on Tuesday forenoon.

A large number from here attended the fair, which was better and bigger than the past years. The ball games were rather one sided but nevertheless a number of feature plays were pulled off.

The Glenfield-Jessie ball game was called off Sunday on account of rain, which was acceptable. The Glenfield team is unable to play any more this season, so the game cannot be played at a later date.

Fred Herbert, a brother of Mrs. L. J. Lehner, is here from Winnipeg.

Chas. Minor, a well-known farmer of this community, passed away at one of the Fargo hospitals on Saturday afternoon. He was affected some time ago with severe headaches which resulted in brain fever causing his sudden and unexpected death. Mr. Minor is a man of pleasant disposition and has innumerable friends, who extend sympathy to the bereaved widow. The funeral was held from the Congregational church at Cooperstown on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Warrberg of Barnesville and Mrs. J. Jenson of Pelican Rapids, Minnesota, are visiting at the D. Jenson home for a week or two.

J. D. Erickson attended the Gilbertson-Lunde wedding on Monday.

Jas. A. McCulloch left Tuesday for Fargo, where he will attend the Inter-State fair.

Otto E. Back and family departed Tuesday for Fargo, where they will spend a day at the fair, before going on to Minnesota.

Counting Your Money

will occupy your entire time when you become a regular advertiser in THIS PAPER. Unless you have an antipathy for labor of this kind, call us up and we'll be glad to come and talk over our proposition.